	1	A	Y	190	6
Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.	Sat.
		1	. 2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
	00	20	30	31	1	de V

That gun crew on the Pennsylvania, which made 17 hits in a minute ought to be signed by some astute baseball manager.

"There is no place like home." Refugees from Vesuvius are said to be already moving back to their old places on the mountain sides.

At the age of 37 there died in 1798 a clerk of the Bank of England who was said to have been nearly seven and one-half feet high.

During Queen Anne's reign there a German giantess without hands or gloves, etc.

Nowadays practically all the Cali-

For the adornment of the city backyard of ordinary size nothing is more our lives." suitable than old-fashioned mixed borders, where anything can be planted, and a bouquet cut every day without the effect being spoiled. The backvard of a city of 25 or 30 feet is ample room for a garden of those annuals that are easily grown from seed.

point of observing little niceties is almost sternly, "if you will not; rise. and it would be strange if madam did chary in her use of perfumes. She When you ask what you do, you for not understand the reference. never indulges in those which come in get how I stand, and how small my And so we began our journey; sadly, liquid form, except to put a few drops power is! You forget that were I to under dripping trees and a leaden sky. twinkling I was running towards the kamp, of Newport. The decision of in the bath water, and those in pow- release your husband to-day, he would The country we had to traverse was fighters. All I have described had hap- the appellate court will result in the dered form she selects with the great. be seized within the hour by those who the same I had trodden on the last pened in a few seconds. My man was exclusion of a stenographer from the est care and never by any chance are still in the village, and who are day of my march southwards, but the still defending himself: the smoke of grand jury room, which is held conthose that are at all aggressive. The watching every road-who have not passage of a month had changed the the carbine had scarcely risen. I trary to the law and to the statutes immoderate use of heavy scents is in ceased to suspect my movement and face of everything. Green dells, where sprang with a shout across a fallen and code of Kentucky. most execrable taste. It suggests my intentions. You forget, I say, my springs welling out of the chalk had tree that intervened; at the same moblowsy hair and cheap imitation jew- circumstances-" elry, and is distinctly to be avoided.

does not fight, if it has sense enough and clams can not fight. If their organ of combativeness is not wanting, they have no use for it. They even devour each other, and may be said to eat themselves, for, changing their shell and stomach every year, these remains are generally the first morsel in a glut their new system."

she thrust her band into her bosom and rigid arms pointing to heaven. An carthy smell filled the air; a hundred paces away a wall of mist closed the view. We plodded on sadly, up hill and down hill; now fording brooks already stained with flood-water, now crossing harren heaths.

a Chicago woman has done. She is Mrs. A. E. McCrae. She has not named her profession and has so official title. She might be called a sta heautifier, for her work consists in making more pleasing to the eye the station grounds and buildings which mark the ways of railroads.

Giants play a part in the mythology scent. The Greeks represented them as beings of monstrous eize, with hideous countenances, and placed them in abodes in volcanic districts, whither that, may my hand rot off!" they were fabled to have been ban-

Two deer appeared in Winsted, on madam.
"It is—that we start at eleven Conn., recently, and, frightened by an approaching team, leaped through the plate-glass window of J. S. Wycock's dry goods store. The crash of the glass awakened persons living of the glass awakened persons of the earth seemed taleral. She—it was mademoiselle, and she had taken off her mask—cast one look at me; only one, but it conveyed disputs the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will, slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me with a will slash the two set upon me will a will slash the two set upon me will a wil of the glass awakened persons living in the vicinity of Lake and Main streets, who ran to their windows in time to see two does run up Main street. They crossed Mad river, distinct the double of the city Nation and the cold under her street. They crossed Mad river, distinct to the city Nation and the cold under her street. They crossed Mad river, distinct to the city Nation and the two set upon me with a will, slashing at my head so furiously and towering above me with so great an advantage that it was all I could do to guard to the city Nation stopped just as Mr. Utterback up, after feeling the shock.

Killed in Frisco.

Louisville, Ky., April 26

With the opening of the spring racing season the "wire tappers," those arch enemies of the poolrooms, are beginning their yearly operations. Their first effort of the year occurred he other day when they fleeced the ew York poolrooms out of more than 0,000 on a single New Orleans race, real winner. There was every evi- looked at me. "Perhaps, as you have down to it again and I saw before us old and wrinkled! dence of a wire-tapping game, but the my parole, you will permit me to ride another crossing, half ford, half Miss Tartun-I wouldn't mind it. poolrooms, having troubles of their alone," he said, with a little hesita own with the law, swallowed their tion, "and—"

She didn't say it to your real face, you at tree. His 5-year-old brother, who gave back and tried it again in another know. She couldn't see that.—Chicago was also struck, is in a serious condi-

You see smoking tobacco advertised every now and again, guaranteed not idea. The fire in the pipe will bite the tongue, if the tobacco burns too fast and not packed closely enough in the board. There is the board of the same at the bard of the pipe will be abreast of the world's advancement.

The eldest son had been absent from the board of there and st be abreast of the world's advancement.

Under the Red Robe By STANLEY J. WEYMAN

CHAPTER XI.-CONTINUED. She signed me at last to sit down and eat; and she went herself and her back to me, I obeyed. I sat down; but though I had eaten nothing since the afternoon of the day before, I could not swallow. I fumbled with my instead of two.

left Cocheforet.

rain fell and fell and fell. And so I

"You want to kill her, too, I sup-

"No fool! I want to save ber!" I knife, and munched and drank; and grew hot and angry at this farce; and the dripping bushes, and the rain, and path, the first roofs of the village; Suddenly she turned round and came were dragging for the captain's body. way might be fatal.

to my side. "You do not eat," she A furlong farther on, a cottage, burned up in a frenzy of passion. "Mon Dieu! Madam!" I cried. "Do you think I have no heart?"

And then in a moment I knew what I had done. In a moment she was on her knees on the floor, clasping my was shown in London and other parts was horrible! It was horrible to see had ridden on, I still saw him standof England a most peculiar anomaly- her fair hair falling over my muding; and after a moment's hesitation I stained boots, to see her slender little rode back to bim. "Listen, fool," I feet who threaded a needle, cut form convulsed with sobs, to feel that said, cutting him short in the midst dropped one. this was a woman, a gentlewoman, who of his mowing and snarling, "and give thus abased herself at my feet.

"Oh, Madam! Madam!" I cried, in her from me that it will be with her fornia honey is extracted before sale. my agony. "I beg you to rise. Rise, busband as it was with M. de Regnler, The reason for this is that the wax of or I must go! You will drive me out!" when he fell into the hands of his enthe comb is proved to be absolutely "Grant me his life!" she mouned pas. emy-no better and no worse." indigestible, is beyond the action of sionately. "Only his life! What had acid and is absolutely tasteless. Fur- he done to you, that you should hunt pose?" he answered, glowering at me. thermore, aside from the half given by him down? What had we done to you. the pure food laws, it is not as easy that you should slay us? Ah, Sir, to dilute honey as one might suppose. have mercy! Let him go, and we will just that and no more, and you will myself, mademoiselle thrust her horse eral years ago with dynamite, when pray for you; I and my sister will pray see the result." for you every morning and night of come and see her lying there, and I ground. stooped and tried to raise her. But The girl who is fastidious to the tion. "Listen then, Madam," I said. I had said—if it were only of curiosity; score of paces from me.

She cut me short on that word. She home, strewn with delicate ferns and sprang abruptly to her feet and faced hung with mosses-these were now A naturalist says: "Men and ani- me. One moment, and I should have swamps into which our horses sank to mals are born with a propensity to said something to the purpose. But it the fetlock. Sunny brows, whence I the animal creation one animal that breathless, dishevelled, struggling for my forward path, had become bare, speech, "Oh yes, yes," she panted windswept ridges. The beech woods, and powers of locomotion. Oysters eagerly, "I know! I understand!" And which had glowed with ruddy light, and clams can not fight. If their or she thrust her band into her bosom were naked now; mere black trunks

There are many professions open to women; but there are not many men who have perfected professions for themselves. For that matter there are few men clever enough to originate new lines of work. Yet that is what a Chiese women has done She is that this was mademoiselle's doi g: others; I escaped their eyes. But there that it was she who, mistrusting the was not a line of mademoiselle's droopeffect of madam's tears and prayers. ing figure that did not speak scorn to had armed her with this last weapon me, not a turn of her head that did -this dirty bribe. I flung it down on not seem to say, "Oh God, that such the table among the plates, all my pity a thing should breathe!" changed to anger. "Madam," I cried I had only speech with her once durruthlessly, "you mistake me altogeth- ing the day and that was on the last er. I have heard hard words enough ridge before we went down into the val. whom I took to be the leader, was gress in the second district against you think of me! But you have yet to had ceased; the sun, near its setting, trying to ride me down; but I leaped eight children. learn that I have never turned traitor shown faintly; and for a few moments aside nimbly and evading him, rushed to the hand that employed me, nor sold my own side! When I do so for a treasure ten times the worth of that, may my hand rot off!"

Shown faintly, and for a few moments we stood on the brow and looked that he dropped his point, cut him across the shoulder before he could across the shoulder before he could guard himself. He plunged away, all the country we had traversed; but that he dropped his point, cut him across the shoulder before he could guard himself. He plunged away, liam E. Arthur, and daughter of the cursing and trying to held in his late William W. Southgate who repished after their unsuccessful at- of despair, and at that moment the like in the level rays, the line of the tempt upon heaven, when the gods, door opened, and M. de Cocheforet with the assistance of Hercules, imwith the assistance of Hercules, imwith the assistance of Hercules, imwith the assistance of Hercules, imcame in. Over his shoulder I had a chantment, soft, radiant, wonderful, riding at me again. And this time line of the late Henry Clay, died after a brief liness. Mrs. Arthur was one of 13 prisoned them under Aetna and other glimpse of mademoiselle's proud face, or like one of those castles on the volcanoes. But modern history re- a little whiter to-day, with dark marks | Hill of Glass of which the old rofutes nearly all the stories and leg- under the eyes, but still firm and cold. mances tell us. I forgot, for an inends concerning giants, even those of a few years back.

"What is this?" he said, frowning stant, how we were placed, and I cried to my neighbor that it was the fairest on madam.

"What is this?" he said, frowning stant, how we were placed, and I cried to my neighbor that it was the fairest him. "Surrender, will you!" he con-

only condition is that she be allowed ing white, with bright eyes and a twitching in his cheek, though through the valley of the Gers, under poplars all he affected a jaunty bearing; she and by long rows of willows; and preswearing a black mask.

"Mademoiselle accompanies us?" I Unfortunately, the rain of the day besaid formally. "With your permission, Monsieur," crossed our path and we more than he answered, with grim politeness. once had a difficulty in fording them. give back. But I saw that he was choking with Noon, therefore, found us little more emotion. I guessed that he had just than half-way to Lectoure, and I was parted from his wife and I turned growing each minute more impatient, orse instead of First Premium, the When we were all mounted he while left the river bank, dropped told me to my face that I was getting

"Without me!" I rejoined keenly place; and finally, just as mademoiselle Tribune, ently the sun came out and warmed us.

fore had swollen the brooks which when our road, which had for a little pageant I had ever seen.

Obeyed Orders.

Thought Tom Was Near at Hand. | strument, she looked under the table | ing to the city this morning. I want She is a devoted mother, whose lov- and called out, "Now, Tom, come out you to accumulate all those rails while Mott Ayres, of Fulton, as state fire to bite the tongue. Dealers sell it, of course, but inwardly they smile at the ing attentions to her family have given of there and stop your nonsense."— I am gone." John answered, "Yes sir," the bowl. There is a point where to bacco may be too closely packed to draw, and a point where it may be bome for the first time, and the elder members of the family planned a sur-location of the so loosely packed that it burns fast, and minute sparks have through the local to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison and minute sparks have through the local to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison and minute sparks have through the local to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather into a large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather in the large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather in the large of John W. Fry, a farmer in Madison to his orders meant to gather in the large of the large of the large sparks pass through the the voice of her boy through the re- called John, his colored farm hand, them. So John gathered into a large county, who disappeared last Janustem and reach the smoker's mouth, ceiver she could not believe that he and said, pointing to a field strewn pile all of the fence rails he could find, any from home, was found hanging to Those are the causes of the tongue be was far away in Atlanta, Ga., as he with fence rails and inclosed by the both loose and in fences, and burned a tree. He was 36 years of age, and assured her he was. Dropping the the same kind of fence: "John, I'm go- them.

'Assuredly, so far as is possible." I and monsieur came up to them, flound directed the troopers to ride in front ered through and sprang slantwise and keep out of ear-shot; my two up the father bank.

men followed the prisoner at a like | The delay had been enough to bring distance, with their carbines on their me, with no good will of my own, knees. Last of all I rode myself, with close up to the Cocheforets. Mademoimy eyes open and a pistol loose in my selle's horse made a little business of holster. M. de Cocheforet, I saw, was the place; this delayed them still inclined to sneer at so many precau- longer and in the result we neared tions and the mountain made of his re- the water almost together and I quest; but I had not done so much crossed close on her heels. The bank and come so far, I had not faced scorn on either side was steep; while crossand insults, to be cheated of my prize ing we could see neither before nor at last. Aware that until we were be- behind. At the moment, however, I yond Auch there must be hourly and thought nothing of this, nor of her pressing danger of a rescue, I was determined that he who would wrest my leisure, when the sudden report ams Express Co. against the commonprisoner from me should pay dearly of a carbine, a second report and a wealth from Knox and Laurel counfor it. Only pride, and, perhaps, in a yell of alarm in front, thrilled me ties, decided that the express comdegree also, appetite for a fight, bad through.

On the instant, while the sound prevented me borrowing ten troopers We started, and I looked with a lina hot iron piercing my brain, the truth gering eye and many memories at the flashed into my mind. We were atthen looked through the window at little bridge, the parrow woodland tacked! We were attacked, and I was here helpless in this pit, this trap!

There was but one way. I turned my horse straight at the steep bank and that the packages had arrived; that by some carelessness in the night lay I threw down my knife and sprang a heap of black ashes. Louis ran be- he breasted it. One moment he hung side us, weeping; the last brown leaves as if he must fall back. Then, with a snort of terror and a desperate bound after it arrived there the lock box fluttered down in showers. And behe topped it and gained the level, people would notify the consignees by tween my eyes and all, the slow, steady trembling and snorting.

It was as I had guessed. Seventy Louis went with us to a point a mile paces away on the road lay one of my beyond the village, and there stood men. He had fallen, horse and man rough ciothes, crying to me for merey— and saw us go, cursing me furiously and lay still. Near him, with his back for life! life! his life! Oh, it as I passed. Looking back when we against a bank, stood his fellow, on foot, pressed by four horsemen and shouting. As my eye lighted on the scene, he let fly with a carbine and I snatched a pistol from my holster, this message to your mistress. Tell cocked it, and seized my borse by the head-I might save the man yet. I from my hand.

I made a snatch at it as it fell but retorted wrathfully. "Tell her that, missed it: and before I could recover "I shall not," be said sullenly. "I shall not tell her. A message from the ears. As my horse reared madly killed Shotwell's father the night be I was in terror lest some one should you, indeed!" And he spat on the up I had a glimpse of her eyes flash- fore. ing hate through her mask; of her "Then on your head be it!" I an- hand again uplifted; the next moment, she would not rise; she only sank swered solemnly. And I turned my I was down in the road, ingloriously the lower until her tender hands horse's head and galloped fast after the unhorsed, the sorrel was galloping clasped my spurs, and I dared not others. For, in spite of his refusal, away, and her horse, scared in its

> I don't doubt that but for that she would have trampled on me. As it was, I was free to draw; and in a wealth's Attorney William A. Bur made of the leafy bottom a faries' ment two of the men detached themselves and rode to meet me. One.

riding at me again. And this time illness. Mrs. Arthur was one of 13 horse, and I turned to meet the masked

She-it was mademoiselle, and she tinued, "you blood hound!" appearing in the direction of Highland lake. M. S. H. B. Hail, who saw the deer jump, said that neither animal touched the sidewalk going or coming from the store.

A. Chinese newspaper, the Chun;
A. Chinese newspaper, the Chun;
Sepecial correspondent at Fengtien who knaves waiting with my special correspondent at Fengtien writes that about the beginning of this month a Japanese imported some 3,000 Japanese widows, whom he of fered for sale, either as domeatic some vants or as secondary wives, at 60
fered for sale, either as domeatic some vants or as secondary wives, at 60 cents a catty (1½ pounds avoiredpois). Photographs are first shown to intending buyers, who then make their selection, and the woman is weighed and her value calculated, The weighed and her value and the value an pushed his horse at me, spurring it recklessly; but the animal, which I several times touched, reared up instead and threw him at the very moment that I wounded his companion a second time in the arm and made him ors. In the band contest Metropolis [To Be Continued.]

Miss Wellon-The impudent thing

FROM ALL OVER THE STATE

RULE AGAINST COMPANY.

Into Dry Community By Express.

Frankfort, Ky., April 28.-The court pany is guilty of fraud and liable to indictment for shipping whisky from was still in my ears, I saw it all. Like an unknown consigner in Cincinnati and that such shipments were not bona fide interstate commerce shipments. The proof showed that packthe distant sundial, and grew cold all now familiar, all seen for the last The loss of a second while I fumbled ages of whisky were shipped to "Look time. Up the brook a party of soldier's here, mademoiselle's horse barring the Box No. -," and that the express company never notified the men to whom the packages were addressed; the whisky was not ordered by any one to be shipped to Knox county, but mail that a C. O. D. package of whis ky had been shipped. The court says these facts showed that no contract for the sale of the whisky was made in Cincinnati at all and therefore it was really sold by the express company in Knox county.

A TRIPLE MURDER RECALLED. Convict Paroled Who Blew Up Res taurant With Dynamite.

London Ky April 27.-Chas Shot well, who died at Corbin Thursday other second should have charged into was paroled from the Frankfort penithe fight, when a sudden vicious blow, tentiary about two months ago on acswift and unexpected, struck the pistol count of consumption. He and his brother Jonathan were serving life sentences for blowing up the restaurant of Rolla White, in Corbin, sev furiously against mine and with her Sutton, Farris and Susan Cox were riding-whip, lashed the sorrel across killed by the explosion. White had > EXCLUDES A STENOGRAPHER. Court of Appeals Hands Down Judgment To That Effect.

> Frankfort, Ky., April 28 .- The court of appeals handed down judgment sus taining the motion of Common

MONSTER BARBECUE.

Coming Week.

Shelbyville, Ky., April 27.-It mercial club to give a monster barbecue on Friday. June 15, in honor of and Shelby county who will be here

Col. Shanks Dies. Newport, Ky., April 28.-Col. Jas. Warren Shanks, 53, widely known in railroad circles died at his residence here. He was state senator from this county in 1898. He served as assistant postmaster of this city, and up to his illness was for a number of years Orleans of the death of Tom Anderconnected with the Queen & Crescent.

Archbishop's Cousin. Owensboro, Ky., April 28.-Samuel served one term in the state legisla. ture and once made the race for con-

Mrs. Arthur Is Dead. She sank into a seas, with a moan beyond it and above it, gleaming pearl- cursing, and trying to hold in his late William W. Southgate, who represented the sixth district in congress. fessed. children, and 62 years old.

> Feel Shock at Paducah. Paducah, Ky., April 28.-A slight earthquake shock was felt here. The tremor of the earth seemed lateral. in the residence of James Utterback, and Garland avenue, Thursday after-

Odd Fellows Meet. Paducah, Ky., April 27.-The 20th annual meeting of the interstate I. O. O. F. was held here, with 10,000 visitwon, and this city gets the next money. The parade was the largest ever held in the history of the association. freight rates, beginning May 14. Owensboro, Ky., April 28.-William Carden, aged 19, was killed by lightning near here while leaning against

Kentucky's New Fire Marshal. Frankfort, Ky., April 27.-Insurance

Found Hanging To a Tree.

WRECK ON L. & N. Whisky Can Not Legally Be Carried Passenger Train Backs Into Switch Engine and Passengers Injured.

Owensboro, Ky., April 26 .- In the Louisville & Nashville yards an L. & N. passenger train backed into a switch engine. The rear coach of the passenger train was overturned. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Fatjo were among those injured, while their two children escaped without a scratch. Mrs. Fatjo, who was Miss Rena Simmons, of Louisville, was badly hurt about her back. Her husband received minor injuries. Postal Inspector H. M. C. Hosford, of Cincinnati, who was standing on the rear platform of the coach, jumped to the ground, sustained a sprained knee and was badly shaken up.

STRIKE BLUE LICK WATER. It Puts End To Boring For Oil in Kentucky Field.

Burkesville, Ky., April 27.-The deep-test oil well, which was being put down by the Greensburg Oil and Gas Co., at Cloyd's Landing, has come in a gusher at a depth of 2,000 feet, not of oil, however, but of Blue Lick water, and as oil men consider this the "bottom," they will not undertake to go deeper. Mr. I. N. Boarts, field manager, said that the result of this well would forever put an end to the theory that the oil found in this field is crevice oil. Mr. Boarts says his company will drill no more deep oil wells, but that it will begin work immediately on three other wells, which will be drilled on the "Graves sand." EXTRA GUARDS FOR BALL.

Middlesboro Slayer Will Be Taken To Richmond For Safekeeping.

Barboursvile, Ky., April 26.-Frank Ball, sentenced to life servitude in the Ball, sentenced to life servitude in the penitentiary for the murder of Jack Bolen at Middleshop last October 1988 Polen at Middleshop last Octobe Bolen, at Middlesboro, last October, pound instantly asserts its curative will be taken to Richmond for safekeeping instead of to Louisville, as at first contemplated. Since his conviction five extra guards have been kept at the county jail. Ball's attorneys made a motion and filed grounds for a made a motion and filed grounds for a new trial and later asked for an extension to give time for the filing of amended motion and grounds.

ington Thursday charged with malicious shooting. The complainant was Engineer Louis Diesel, successor to Engineer Fleming, of the Ludlow hill engine, who was shot and killed by a negro two weeks ago while on the Dear Mrs. Pinkham;—

My backaches and headaches are an gone and is suffer no pain at my monthly periods, whereas before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain."

Mrs. Emma Cotrely, 109 East 12th Street, New York City, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham;—

ham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham's vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain."

Mrs. Emma Cotrely, 109 East 12th Street, New York City, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: cue on Friday. June 15, in honor of the former residents of Shelbyville negro, two weeks are while on the street, New York City, writes: negro two weeks ago while on the same engine. It is charged that Jackson fired one shot at Diesel when he son fired one shot at Diesel when he night near Ludlow, but the shot went wide of the mark and Diesel was not hurt. Tom Anderson Dies. Lexington, Ky., April 26.-News reached here Wednesday from New son, proprietor of a well-known hoslocated at both Lexington and Cin- telry in the Crescent City. Anderson had a large circle of acquaintances among the horsemen throughout the country, his place being a well-known resort for followers of the races, and died at the home of his sister, Mrs. E.

J. Buckman, in this county. He Death Sentence Confirmed. Frankfort, Ky., April 28.-The death sentence given James Pearsall of in the last 24 hours, and I know what ley to climb up again to Auch. The rain masked. He came furiously at me, James Spalding. He is survived by Lexington, for criminal assault on the person of Mrs. Lizzie Wagner, was affirmed by the court of appeals. Pear sall broke into the coom of Wagner and his wife, wounded Wagner, then > nized by them. After arrest he con Boys Smothered To Death. Louisville, Ky., April 27.-Supposed to have been smothered to death, the W.L. DOUCLAS bodies of Albert Kisler and Leo Pfannmoeller, small boys, who had been missing from their homes since Monday, were found buried deep in cannot be equalled at any price. corn in a great bin of the John C. Roach distillery, at Thirteen street dragged Mrs. Wagner to another room and assaulted her, but was not recog-

Can Fix the Penalty. Frankfort, Ky., April 25 .- The court streets, who ran to their windows in time to see two does run up Main street. They crossed Mad river, disappearing in the direction of Highland appearing in the direction of Highland lake. Mrs. M. B. Hall, who saw the deer jump, said that neither animal deer jump, said that neither of appeals affirmed the Kenton circuit

Ready For Talk. rankfort, Ky., April 26.-The state board of railroad commissioners gave notice to the attorneys that they will hear arguments on the general complaint against all railroads operating in Kentucky for alleged exorbitant

Ed. Corrigan's Trainer Suicides. Louisville, Ky., April 26.—Patrick Buggy, aged 40, whose home was in Seattle, and who was employed by Edward Corrigan, the turfman, as a trainer, ended his life with carbolic acid at St. Joseph's infirmary.

Death of Col. West. Denver, Col., April 26.-Col. Darrington K. West, deputy commissary general of the department of Colormarshal, an office created by the legis- ado, died at his home here after an but, not knowing what was meant by lature a few weeks ago. Col. Ayres illness of four days from pneumonia. accumulate, he hailed a passer-by and is at present the deputy insurance Col. West was born near Lexington, Ky., about 44 years ago.

Fatally Hurt in Runaway. Franklin, Ky., April 26.-Robert Powell, 14, was fatally injured here He was adjusting the harness on a pair of mules when the animals be came frightened and started to run. The boy's skull was fractured.

The student of sociology handed the tramp a cigar. He wanted to learn about how such people viewed life. "Are you happy?" he asked. The tramp shifted into a sunny spot. "I shou'd smile," he answered, blowing a cloud; "too late to shovel snow, too early to trim lawns, nobody putting in coal, and once in awhile a sucker studying social conditions."—Philadelphia Ledger.

What He Learned.

"I learned the game of love once," sighed the young man in the blue waist-coat. "So?" asked his chum. "Yes; through a school of correspondence. I took ten lessons." "And did you realize anything?" "Only that I was a lobster. She kept the letters and sued me for breach of promise."—Detroit Tribune.

"When a man gits mo' money dan he Garfield Tea is Nature's remedy for liver and kidney diseases.

Your competitor works while you sleep. Indianapolis Star.

There are occasions when it is perjury

What He Learned.

needs for victuals, house rent an clothe said Uncle Eben, "he's either got to mighty sensible or mighty to fully enjoy the balance."-

Garfield Tea purifies the blood. field Tea cures sick headaches.

Life would be stale, flat, and unprofit able without its illusions.

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women-Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It ham's Vegetable Compound, We seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts"? These significant remarks prove female troubles. I am complete sorts"? These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention. Backache and "the blues" are direct When women are troubled with irregsymptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It was be caused by diseased kidneys or some derangement of the organs. Nature requires assistance and at once, bloating (or flatulence), general de bility, indigestion and nervous prostra tion, or are beset with such symptom ability, irritability, nervousn lessness, melancholy, "all g "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling and hopelessness, they should reber there is one tried and true re Lydia E. Pinkham's Veg Read the convincing testimonials of Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Cotrely. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. No other medicine in the world has received this widespread and unqualified endorse-ment. Refuse to buy any substitute. Mrs. J. C. Holmes, of Larimore, North powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of

Another Attempt To Kill Engineer of Ludlow Hill Engine.

Covington, Ky., April 27.—Ernest Jackson, colored, was arrested in County Judge Stephens' court in Covington Thursday charged with malicious shooting. The complainant was Dakota, writes:

was on his engine on Wednesday Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice-A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

NO MORE MUSTARD PLASTERS TO BLISTER CAPSICUM VASELINE

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN.

there is anything about her sympton

VASELINE CAMPHOR ICE SUPERIOR TO ANYTHING IN USE FOR CHAPPED HANDS AND LIPS AND TO ALLAY ALL IRRITATION OF THE SKIN. A SOVEREIGN REMEDY FOR SUN-BURN

VASELINE COLD CREAM KEEPS THE SKIN IN A SOFT AND HEALTHY CONDITAND PRESERVES THE COMPLEXION. EACH OF THE WELL KNOWN PREPARATIONS CAN BE OBTAINED FORUGGISTS AND DEALERS, OR WILL SEND BY ON RECEIPT OF 15 CENTS IN MONEY OR STA

EXCEPTING CAMPHOR ICE, FOR WHICH SEND TEN GENTS CHESEBROUGH MFG. CO., 17 State Street, NEW YORK

blues," every month? Suf-fer from headache, backache, low waist-pains, creeping sensations, nervousness, irritability, irregularity, or any disorder of your natural functions? Such symptoms show that you suffer from one of the diseases peculiar to women. Don't procrasti-

WOMAN'S RELIEF

is no worse than the pains I suffered periodically. Nothing relieved me, until I took Cardui. Now the pains have gone, and I am stronger than in 15 years." Try it for your troubles.

At all Drug Stores

Mrs. Sarah G. Butts, of White Plains, Va., writes: "Cardui is certainly a panacea for suffering women. I was sunk in despair. Death

MANUFACTURER IN THE WORLD.
$10,000 REWARD to anyone who can disprove this statement.

If I could take you into my three large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you the infinite care with which every pair of shoes is made, you would realize why W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes cost more to make, why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater intrinsic value than any other $3.50 shoes.

W. L. Douglas Strong Made Shoes for Men, $2.50, $2.00. Boys School & Dress Shoes, $2.50, $2.91.75, $1.50. CAUTION.—Insist upon having W.L. Douglas shoes. Take no substitute. None genuine without his name and price stamped on bottom. Fast Coin Eyelets used; they will not wear brassy. Write for Illustrated Catalog.

W. L. DOUGLAS. Brockton, Mass.

MEN WANTED FOR THE NAVY. Mechanics between the ages of 21 and 35 will find good positions open to them, and for young men between 17 and 25, who possess no trade, there is good opportunity for advancement. A full outfit of clothing free and liberal pay to commence with. Call or write Navy Recruiting Office, Post Office Building, Cincinnati, Ohio: Post Office Building, Louisville, Ky.: Post Office Building, Indianapolis, Ind.

FOR CHILDREN,

HOLD UP and consider FISH POMMEL MOTHER GRAY'S
SWEET POWDERS CLOTHING